OPAL CLASS

Dear Families

Great to have a Sunday without rain finally! Hope you have had a lovely weekend? Thank you to all families for supporting the children in the Christmas Nativity. They were amazing! They absolutely sung their hearts out –I was so proud and they certainly saved their best until last, just for you.

We have another busy week ahead, Christmas Panto Tuesday, Christingle, Christmas PE with Mr Ayre and Christmas lunch on Wednesday. There might be a certain visitor arrival Friday BUT please do NOT mention this to the children!!

Please can I ask for one last call out for donations for our homeless appeal! All donations to be in by Wednesday at the latest. Thankyou!

This week we plan to write Christmas cards, study shapes with 4 sides and 4 corners, complete a couple of science experiments (with chocolate and candy canes) and watch that rascal, the Gingerbread Man! You never know what he might get up to! Not forgetting all the Christmas fun! Oh, and go to the park!!

This week's key reminders:

- CHRISTMAS PANTOMIME –Truro Tuesday 12th December (please make sure you know what you have planned for the children's lunch!)
- Christingle Wednesday 13th December (you do not need to do anything for this)
- Children's Christmas Lunch 13th Wednesday
