

Hello everyone,

I hope you are ok and the children are feeling rested after their first full week back!

Last week, we immersed ourselves straight into learning and the children have worked diligently across all subjects. Thank you for sending them in with lots of lovely photos of them from when they were younger. This week, we will use these pictures as part of our history learning and they will be returned to you by Wednesday.

Key reminders this week:

- PE day will be on Thursday.
- Our class spelling test will be on Friday- please check your child's book bag to see which spelling group they are in. I will also upload our autumn term spellings to the website under 'Jade Class'.
- New phonics homework will be sent home this week and will need to be returned by Friday. Thank you for supporting your child with this.
- Please ensure your child brings in their books every day! Any reading at home should be recorded on Boomreader. I will send out your login details this week. These will be the same login details from last year.
